Production and Operations Management Society
Theme: Emerging Domains of Operations Management

Venue: The Hyatt Regency, 9801 International Drive, Orlando,
FL 32819, U.S.A.

About the Conference

Production and Operations Management Society (POMS) is an international professional organization representing the interests of production and operations management (POM) professionals from around the world. The purposes of the Society are:

- To extend and integrate knowledge that contributes to the improved understanding and practice of POM;
- To disseminate information on POM to managers, scientists, educators, students, public and private organizations, national and local governments, and the general public; and
- To promote the improvement of POM and its teaching in public and private manufacturing and service organizations throughout the world.

The society's web page may be found at: <http://www.poms.org/>

The annual conference provides an opportunity for faculty, doctoral students and practitioners to share knowledge and insights through research presentations, tutorials, workshops and panel discussions.

Plenary Speakers

We are in the process of lining up plenary speakers for the annual conference. Please stay tuned for information on the plenary speakers.

Conference Format

We are planning to hold the conference in-person in Orlando, Florida, U.S.A. However, we are monitoring the pandemic situation. The conference will convert to an online format if the situation does not improve.

At the time of abstract submission, you will be asked to give your preference to hold the conference in-person or online. Your answer will help us in making the decision about the conference format.

Who May Participate

Researchers working in the area of operations management (OM) from academia, government, industry and research establishments as well as doctoral students are invited to submit research papers, proposals for symposia, tutorials, and/or workshops on current topics in OM.

Submission Information

Interested participants are invited to submit abstracts of continuous text (no bullet points, no math/Greek symbols) no longer than 50 words describing their presentation. The title should be no longer than 15 words. Submission should include information about all co-authors including full name, organization, and contact email. The system will also ask to identify the name of the paper presenter. One person can present at most three papers. See important dates and frequently asked questions on the conference website.

- The conference website will be available to submit abstracts on October 15, 2021.
- The last date to submit abstracts is December 15, 2021.
- The colleges' mini conferences will be held on April 21, 2022.
- The main conference will be held from April 22-25, 2022.
