

33rd Annual POMS Conference, Orlando Florida, May 21-25, 2023

DOCTORAL CONSORTIUM

Tuesday, May 23, 2023 | 1:00 pm to 5:30 pm EST

Venue: Orlando Ballroom N

Agenda of Topics

The 2023 POMS Doctoral Consortium looks to expose attendees to the current themes and trends that are shaping higher education and that, indirectly, are shaping the conduct of research and delivery of quality education at all academic levels in universities today. While we will provide insight into the current academic job market and perspectives on developing a job search strategy, attendees will also hear insight into important changes/trends in the profession. The program aims to provide useful insight and guidance from an esteemed group of early-career, mid-career, and senior faculty members. This program represents an invaluable opportunity for attendees to extend their emerging professional network.
